Subject: 答复: Application to request to exclude particular products from the Section 301

Hi Jill,

Thank you for your e-mail, understand the situation, we just want to do anything if it is possible to reduce the CTG's import cost.

Keep in touch!

All the best regards.

Vivian

Vivian:

We are aware of this, and are taking a stab at it. However, you should be aware that we do not believe there is much chance of getting an exemption for cabinets. Exemptions are extremely difficult to get and are generally only available when there is a shortage of the product in the US. We don't believe there will be much support for that argument, particularly in light of the anti-dumping petition.

Hi Chelsea and Jill,

We received the following notice from China forest union last night, hope you already know of this.

The US government give the chance for US importer to apply for excluding particular products from the Section 301.

Please read and try about it if possible.

Thank you and best regards.

OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES
TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

[Docket Number USTR-2019-0005]

Procedures for Requests To Exclude Particular Products From the September 2018 Action Pursuant to Section 301: China's Acts, Policies, and Practices Related to Technology
Transfer, Intellectual Property, and Innovation

AGENCY: Office of the United States
Trade Representative.

ACTION: Notice and request for comments.

SUMMARY: In a notice published on May 9, 2019, the United States Trade Representative (Trade Representative) announced that the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR) would establish a process by which U.S. stakeholders may request exclusion of particular products classified within a tariff subheading covered by the September 2018 action in this investigation from the additional duties. This notice announces that USTR will open an electronic portal for submission of exclusion requests on June 30, 2019, and sets out the specific procedures for submitting requests.
